SERVE ON THE CITY OF SACRAMENTO INDEPENDENT REDISTRICTING COMMISSION

The City of Sacramento is recruiting qualified applicants to serve on the City of Sacramento Independent Redistricting Commission (SIRC) to redraw city council district boundaries in 2021.

Step forward as a leader in your community to:
• Make a lasting impact: New council district boundaries will be in effect for the next 10 years.
• Represent your community: Equitable representation of neighborhoods enables an equal voice in city government.

The ideal applicant is
• registered to vote in the City of Sacramento.
• knows Sacramento’s diverse neighborhoods and people.
• can commit 6-10 hours per month in 2021 to hold public meetings, consider public input, draft and approve council district maps, and other activities.
• does not have a conflict of interest which includes being a city elected official, city employee, lobbyist, or involved in a local campaign.

The deadline to apply is May 1, 2020 at 5:00 PM!

Applicants will be notified of the next steps in September 2020 and SIRC commissioners selected by December 1, 2020. Training and public meetings begin in February 2021.
