The City provides opportunities for the public to address the Board as a whole in order to listen to the public's opinions regarding non-agendized matters within the subject matter jurisdiction of the City during Regular meetings and regarding items on the Agenda at all other meetings.
  - Public comments should not be addressed to individual Members nor to City officials, but rather to the Parks & Recreation Commission as a whole regarding City business.
  - While the public may speak their opinions on City business, personal attacks on Members and City officials, use of swear words, and signs or displays of disrespect for individuals are discouraged as they impede good communication with the Committee.
  - Consistent with the Brown Act, the public comment periods on the Agenda are not intended to be "Question and Answer" periods or conversations with the Committee and City officials. The limited circumstances under which Members may respond to public comments are set out in Rule 8 D 2 of the Council Rules of Procedure.
  - Members of the public with questions concerning Consent Calendar items may contact the staff person on the report prior to the meeting to reduce the need for discussion of Consent Calendar items and to better respond to the public's questions.

- The Presiding Officer shall consistently utilize the timing system which provides speakers with notice of their remaining time to complete their comments. A countdown display of the allotted time will appear and will flash red at the end of the allotted time.
- In the further interest of time, speakers may be asked to limit their comments to new materials and not repeat what a prior speaker said. Organized groups may choose a single spokesperson who may speak for the group but with no increase in time.
- Speakers shall not concede any part of their allotted time to another speaker.

The Presiding Officer may further limit the time allotted for public comments per speaker or in total for the orderly conduct of the meeting and such limits shall be applied.

Attachment 01 – Description/Analysis

Issue: The Department of Youth, Parks, & Community Enrichment (Department) recommends the Commission support the renaming of Richfield Park as LeVar Burton Park.

Richfield Park is an existing 3.14-acre neighborhood park located at 1900 Expedition Way in South Area (District 8). Existing park amenities include basic landscaping, a group picnic area with a shade shelter, seating areas, open turf, a turf amphitheater, a volleyball court and a basketball court. A new sign and plaque will be installed to reflect the renaming to LeVar Burton Park.

LeVar Burton was born Levaradis Robert Martyn Burton, Jr. in Landstuhl, West Germany in 1957. His father was a photographer for the U.S. Army Signal Corps and was stationed in Europe for a tour of duty. At three years old, when his parents divorced, his mother moved him and his two sisters to Glen Elder in Sacramento.

His mother Erma was an English teacher who wanted her children to value their education and be raised Catholic. She supported LeVar when he decided to study at a Catholic seminary in Galt, California to become a priest. However, the seminary had a strong theater tradition, and LeVar was subsequently bitten by the acting bug.

After attending Christian Brothers High School in 1974, LeVar received a drama scholarship to attend the University of Southern California's School of Theater. As a sophomore at the University of Southern California, LeVar auditioned and was cast in the award-winning mini-series Roots, which broke all viewing records when it aired. Burton's performance earned him an Emmy nomination for Best Actor in a Drama Series. He was just 19 years old. Burton later went on to star in all seven seasons of the science fiction success Star Trek: The Next Generation. He was given the opportunity to direct his first episode of the show in 1993.

During the same time that LeVar was starring in Star Trek: The Next Generation, he was also hosting and producing the Public Broadcasting Service's educational children's series titled Reading Rainbow. LeVar was the Executive Producer of the show which encouraged young people to read and connect with literature. The show ran for 23 seasons and was the longest running children's shows ever. It won over 200 broadcast awards including a Peabody Award in 1993, and 26 Emmy Awards for excellence in the television industry. LeVar Burton won 12 personal Emmy Awards as host and Executive Producer of the show.

LeVar has been credited as an actor, a television director and producer, an author, presenter, film director, and voice actor. He currently sits on the board of directors for the Directors Guild of America. For his accomplishments, Sacramento recognized LeVar in 2016. He was among the first to be honored in Sacramento's Walk of Stars with a 3-by-3-foot star installation at 18th and L streets. The program annually honors three to five people with strong ties to the Sacramento area. Burton wrote in a statement to the Sacramento Walk of Stars nonprofit organization that he has always been proud of his Sacramento roots, "Sacramento has imprinted itself on me in a most indelible way."

One of LeVar's passions is promoting literacy for children. He believes that reading is the ticket to knowledge. LeVar credits his mother for his belief that one's life should be a service to the greater community. In November 2018, he told The Atlantic Magazine that education is the family business. LeVar recently launched a Reading Rainbow app for the newest generation. The value LeVar places on literacy is undeniable and he continues to use his career and influence to be a strong advocate for education.

Policy Considerations: On February 26, 2008, the City Council adopted Resolution 2008-112, establishing a Facility Naming Policy. The policy contains guidance when naming facilities or portions of facilities. One of the guiding policies encourages facilities to be named for individuals or families that have contributed substantially to the community or facility, especially a deserving local individual or family.

Providing parks and recreation facilities is consistent with the City's strategic plan to enhance livability in Sacramento's neighborhoods by expanding park, recreation, and trail facilities throughout the City. Park naming is part of the Park Development Process as outlined in the City of Sacramento's 2005-2010 Parks and Recreation Master Plan.

Economic Impacts: The cost of a park sign is included in the park development budget.

Environmental Considerations: The proposed project consists of the construction and installation of two new small structures – a new park sign and a new plaque. The construction and location of a new park sign is exempt from environmental review pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15303, New Construction or Conversion of Small Structures.

Sustainability: Not Applicable

Commission/Committee Action: Not Applicable

Rationale for Recommendation: Renaming the Richfield Park as LeVar Burton Park is consistent with the City's Facility Naming Policy. The policy allows for facilities to be named for historical significance, distinct developmental features, neighborhood, community, or access streets, or an individual who has contributed substantially to the community or the facility (especially for a deserving local individual).

Financial Considerations: The Department's FY2018/19 Operating Budget will be increased by $17,810 (Fund 3204) from Fund 3204 Available Fund Balance. Once the appropriation is made, there will be sufficient funding in the Department's FY2018/19 Operating Budget (Fund 3204) to purchase the new park sign and plaque.

Attachment 01 – Description/Analysis

Issue: The Department of Youth, Parks, & Community Enrichment (Department) recommends that the Commission support renaming of Saint Rose of Lima Park as Ali Youssefi Square. Saint Rose of Lima Park is a 0.51-acre small plaza located at 705 K Street in Central City (Council District 4). Saint Rose of Lima Park was named for a key Catholic Church located in downtown Sacramento during the mid-1800s. It was owned and managed by the Redevelopment Agency until 2012 and is the location of special events and the holiday ice skating rink. Due to the historical significance of the site, a plaque will be mounted at 7th and K streets to honor Saint Rose of Lima. A new sign and a new plaque will be installed to reflect the renaming to Ali Youssefi Square.

Ali Youssefi cared deeply about Sacramento and its residents. Before he passed away in March 2018, he contributed to some of Sacramento's newest and most forward-thinking residential development projects in the Central City, including the recently constructed 700 block of K Street project across from the plaza.

Ali was born in Sacramento. After attending Jesuit High School, he went on to Dartmouth University in New Hampshire where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree and majored in Economics and Cognitive Science. He returned to Sacramento to be with his family and friends after working in San Francisco's finance sector. Ali's father, Cyrus Youssefi, immigrated from Iran and started CFY Development, Inc. The company specializes in multi-family and affordable housing and has received numerous awards. Ali was the Vice President of the company and worked on high quality affordable housing projects especially in Central City. Ali and his father partnered together on mixed-use and mixed-income development projects throughout Sacramento. Both recognize that encouraging and supporting mixed-income residential development is the best way to combat the affordable housing crisis. Their development projects in Sacramento reflect that sentiment.

Ali played a key role in the redevelopment of K Street between 7th and 9th streets in downtown Sacramento. In addition to the 700 K Street block project, he was a part-owner and partner with the Sacramento Kings and was working with them on renovation of the historic BelVue building for low income residents and a project to build mixed-use apartments and retail along the 800 block of K Street near the Golden 1 Center. He also developed the Warehouse Artist Lofts project called The WAL along the R Street Corridor. Ali was in charge of the development of The Hardin, a mixed income housing project on the 700 block of K Street above the retail buildings. His goal was to allow Sacramento residents to live as close to their place of work as possible. His work on a low-income housing project on 17th and S streets will continue through his father's company, CFY Development, Inc., and the Capital Area Development Authority.

Ali was married on June 17, 2018 and was diagnosed with stomach cancer just one month later. He died at the young age of 35. Throughout his battle with cancer, he remained positive. He told The Sacramento Bee that his diagnosis was "just another challenge to overcome." His perseverance and can-do attitude resulted in him becoming one of the most well-known young developers in Sacramento.

While remembering Ali, Mayor Darrell Steinberg said he "was a friend whose generosity, vision, and determination helped shape Sacramento into the vibrant and inclusive community it is today. He was an embodiment of Sacramento values and was unfairly taken too early from this world." In his own words, Ali told The Sacramento Bee in October 2017 that "if we embrace the idea of building mixed-income neighborhoods, Sacramento will be an even more diverse and integrated city than it is today." Ali will be missed, but his legacy lives on.

Policy Considerations: On February 26, 2008, the City Council adopted Resolution 2008-112, establishing a Facility Naming Policy. The policy contains guidance when naming facilities or portions of facilities. One of the guiding policies encourages facilities to be named for individuals or families that have contributed significantly to the community or facility posthumously.

Providing parks and recreation facilities is consistent with the City's strategic plan to enhance livability in Sacramento's neighborhoods by expanding park, recreation, and trail facilities throughout the City. Park naming is part of the Park Development Process as outlined in the City of Sacramento's 2005-2010 Parks and Recreation Master Plan.

Economic Impacts: The cost of a park sign is included in the park development budget.

Environmental Considerations: The proposed project consists of the construction and installation of three new small structures – a new sign and two new remembrance plaques. The construction of a new park signs and plaques is exempt from environmental review pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15303, New Construction or Conversion of Small Structures.

Commission/Committee Action: Not Applicable

Rationale for Recommendation: Renaming the Saint Rose of Lima Park as Ali Youssefi Square is consistent with the City's Facility Naming Policy. The policy allows for facilities to be named for historical significance, distinct developmental features, neighborhood, community, or access streets, or an individual who has contributed significantly to the community or the facility at least one year after their passing.

Financial Considerations: The Department's FY2018/19 Operating Budget is to be increased by $20,800 (Fund 3204) from the Fund 3204 Available Fund Balance. Once the appropriation is made, there will be sufficient funding in the Department's FY2018/19 Operating Budget (Fund 3204) to purchase the sign and provide two plaques honoring Saint Rose of Lima and Ali Youssefi.

Issue: The North Natomas Community Center & Aquatic Complex (NNCCAC) project proposes to develop 12.7 acres of the regional park site. Improvements consists of an approximately 8,000 SF community center building, a nine-lane 25-yard recreational pool, an eight lane 50-yard swimming competition pool, a zero-entry pool with water features such as a slide, and two larger water slides with runout flumes. Support buildings would contain showers, lockers, community rental rooms, concessions, offices for staff, and a separate building containing the pool equipment and utilities. The parking lot would provide for 249 spaces.

On October 5, 2017, the Parks and Recreation Commission supported the amendment to the North Natomas Regina Park Master Plan to locate the Aquatic Complex and Community Center as one combined complex to a new location within the North Natomas Regional and Community Park; and recommended that the amendment be forwarded to City Council for approval.

On June 7, 2018, City Council adopted Resolution No. 2018-0215 approving the North Natomas Regional and Community Park Master Plan Amendment and Schematic Design Plans for the North Natomas Community Center and Aquatic Complex Project.

Policy Considerations: Not Applicable

Economic Impacts: Not Applicable

Environmental Considerations: On June 7, 2018, the City Council adopted the Mitigated Negative Declaration (MND) and the Mitigation Monitoring Program for the North Natomas Regional and Community Park Master Plan Amendment and Community Center and Aquatics Complex Project.

Sustainability: The proposed Community Center and Aquatics Complex has been reviewed for consistency with the goals, policies, and targets of the City's Sustainability Master Plan (SMP) and the Parks and Recreation Sustainability Plan (PRSP).

Commission/Committee Action: On December 6, 2018, a Director's hearing was held with Design Review Board to review the design of NNCCAC. The project design received support from the Urban Design Director.

Rationale for Recommendation: Not Applicable

Financial Considerations: The total estimated construction cost for the NNCCAC is anticipated to be $35,480,000. Annual operation and maintenance costs, as well as anticipated revenue from the Aquatic Complex operations, will be brought forward with the project financing plan as part of the award of the construction contract.

Issue: Last year the Parks and Recreation Department changed its name to the Youth, Parks & Community Enrichment Department. Also, the City Council and City Clerk desire that the Sacramento Youth Commission be established as a formal commission in the City Code. As a result, staff is bringing forward proposed changes to Chapter 2.62, the current Parks and Recreation Commission code, and adding Chapter 2.126 for the Sacramento Youth Commission.

The proposed new commission name is the Parks and Community Enrichment Commission. While the commission will continue to consider and make recommendations to the City Council related to the Department's programs and facilities that benefit youth, adding "Youth" to the commission's name would be confusing because the Sacramento Youth Commission already exists.

The other changes are to make the text of the code sections more precise and consistent with other commissions, to delete references to hearings since tree appeals are no longer considered by the commission, and the provision on initial staggered terms when the commission was reformed in 2012 is no longer needed. No substantive changes to the commission's powers and duties are being recommended since there has been no such directives issued to the City Manager by the City Council.

The proposed code changes for both commissions are to be considered by the council's Law and Legislative Committee in April, so that the new code chapters can be adopted in May and take effect in June when the new terms for the Sacramento Youth Commission members commence.

Please include a description of the nominee's background and achievements.	Contact Person: Cynthia Westbrook (teacher at American Lakes Elementary) American Lakes Green team started in 2011, when kids were asked what they could do to help their community. Kids agreed it would be recycling at school and keeping things going into the proper waste streams. They were really appalled about the plastic in the ocean gyres of the Pacific. The green team moves about 8 tons of paper out of classrooms into recycling that had previously been going to landfills. That is at least eight tons each year. We also became the first school to start the district's food waste diversion program. So kids made posters, did a school wide presentation with the local Waste Management business and made a food waste stream with the cafeteria. This food waste is used to fuel the waste trucks in the city. Green Team is currently working to get our garden up and running with an American Lakes' beautification day in the works. Last year we participated in the Opening Day Parade and plan to participate again this year. We also helped with the tree planting and park cleanup at Northgate Park. We continue to recycle paper out of our classrooms and food out of the cafeteria and we try to change paradigms about waste. Most classrooms have changed their large classroom trash bins into recycling bins and use the small bins for the landfill. It is a pleasure to see how kids have taken this whole thing over. We started with about 25 very dedicated kids and now have about 55-60 kids this year. Green Team is made up of 1st through 7th graders. They are really proud of what they do and they feel they are changing their community and the world.

Please include a description of the nominee's background and achievements.

The Land Park Volunteer Corps Board of Directors nominate River Swanson, now a high school junior. Not only does River have the highest participation rate of any young person in the history of the Corps by far - having volunteered at an astonishing 43 of our monthly park workdays - River is one of the Corps' most effective and senior Team Captains.

Team Captains play a crucial role with the Corps. They are assigned to lead teams of volunteers each month that tackle specific projects throughout William Land Park. River's teams have ranged in size from as few as five Corps volunteers to over 50 volunteers. He is by far our youngest Team Captain and he regularly and ably supervises the work of volunteers who are often three, four or even five times his chronological age. He is also regularly assigned to head up our largest project teams, many of which include high school classmates of his who are older than he is.

He is widely respected by his youth peers and is uniformly admired by his fellow Team Captains. He never turns down an assignment and he always completes his team's goals. He never complains. He finds innovative solutions to challenges that crop up. He is rock solid dependable, never overwhelmed or flummoxed and always patient with, and supportive of, his often brand new volunteers. He is mature and responsible beyond his years. As a Team Captain, he has to instruct new volunteers on how to properly trim park bushes, care for flower beds, mulch park trees, etc. He not only has all of the skills necessary to maintain park landscaping, he has the much rarer ability to instruct, supervise, motivate and inspire others working under him.

He is in every sense of the word an extraordinary leader who sets an outstanding example for those who serve on his teams. We didn't hesitate for a second to assign such responsibility to someone of such tender years. River has contributed tremendously to the restoration and preservation of William Land Park.

One final note. River has dealt with some very serious personal health challenges during his time as a Corps volunteer and Team Captain, challenges that would have discouraged others with less fortitude, patience and dedication. River has rallied to overcome his health challenges and has come back stronger than before. Frankly, he's a pretty heroic young man who serves as in inspiration to those fortunate enough to work alongside him in caring for William Land Park.

Without reservation, we wholeheartedly suggest that River Swanson be nominated to receive the City of Sacramento's Volunteer Recognition Award in the "Youth" category.
