

March 2016

Monday March 14	"Train the Trainer"	Police HQ 5770 Freeport Blvd	6:30- 8:30pm	Neighborhood Emergency Training (NET)
Monday March 21	Personal and Home Security	Transitions Clinic, 3647 40th Street	6:30 – 8:30pm	Basic crime prevention in your everyday life.
Tuesday March 22	Personal and Home Security	One Speed Restaurant 4818 Folsom Blvd	6:00 – 8:30pm	Protect yourself and your property with a some street smarts and a little ingenuity.
Tuesday March 29	"NW 101"	Rio Linda Manor Apartments 2671 Rio Linda Blvd,	6:30 – 8:30pm	Start and/or revive a Neighborhood Watch group.

All of the above trainings are open to the public. If you want a private meeting with your neighborhood, this is the perfect time. I suggest that you consider one of the following:

Neighborhood Emergency Training

Get your family and neighborhood ready to weather any storm!

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED)

Take a look at your landscaping, lighting, video surveillance, fencing, locks, windows and doors.

Can you make your property a harder target for criminals?

For Questions Contact: Barbara Falcon at mfalcon@pd.cityofsacramento.org/916-808-0813