FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Invited to Overview of “Cool in the Pool” Program and Demonstration of New, Online Swim/Recreation Course Registration System

Sacramento, California, June 19, 2007— On Wednesday, June 20th, the media is invited to Pannell Meadowview Community Center and Pool to learn more about the Department of Parks and Recreation’s “Cool in the Pool” program and new, online registration system that allows residents to register and pay for swim courses online. Staff will be on hand from 9a.m. to 11a.m. to answer questions and conduct demonstrations of the online registration system.

The “Cool in the Pool” program keeps many of the City’s pools open until 7p.m. whenever outside temperatures reach 100 Degrees Fahrenheit or more. Thirteen pools will participate in the program this summer. The pools will remain open from 1p.m to 7p.m. whenever the previously-mentioned conditions apply.

Just in time for what is expected to be another hot summer, the Department recently launched an online registration system that allows residents to sign up and pay for swim courses as well as other recreation courses. With the system in place, residents no longer have to brave the heat or high gas prices to register for the Department’s many recreation courses. Residents can now do so from the comfort of their homes.

Staff will be on hand on Wednesday from 9a.m. to 11a.m. to answer questions and conduct demonstrations.
