

CITY OF SACRAMENTO
MEDIA ADVISORY

DEPARTMENT OF PARKS AND RECREATION

Contact: Hindolo Brima, Media and Communications Specialist
(916) 808-5972 • FAX: (916) 808-7643
email: HBrima@cityofsacramento.org
915 I Street, Fifth Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oak Park Multi-cultural Parade and Festival to Celebrate the Oak Park Community: Saturday, October 6, 2007

Sacramento, California, October 2, 2007— The media and public are invited to attend the Oak Park Multi-cultural Parade and Festival. The event showcases Oak Park's cultural diversity, strong sense of community, and the Oak Park Complex which provides essential services to the residents of Oak Park. The parade and cultural festival will take place this Saturday, October 6th, from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The sponsors of the Oak Park Multi-cultural Parade and Festival include the Sacramento Department of Parks and Recreation, the Multi-service Center, and WCIC/Playmate Head Start. Together, these three entities provide a full-range of academic, social, and health programs in a complex known as the Oak Park Complex.

Saturday's parade will be filled with local dignitaries and stars, marching bands, colorful floats, and plenty of music. The cultural festival will include traditional performances and displays, cuisines from all parts of the world, and service booths.

Details:

Name: Oak Park Multi-cultural Parade and Cultural Festival
Date: Saturday, October 6th
Location: The Oak Park Complex, 3425 Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd.
Time: 11 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Locations: 11 a.m – 12 p.m.: Multi-cultural Parade
(Route: Parade begins at Broadway and Alhambra, proceeds east on Broadway, and south on Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd, ending at the 3425 MLK Blvd.)
12 p.m. – 4 p.m.: Multi-cultural Festival—Oak Park Complex

Media-related questions about this event can be forwarded to Hindolo Brima, Public Information Officer, Department of Parks and Recreation, (916) 808-5972.

#####