Doggy Dip Days!

Saturday and Sunday, October 25th and 26th

Sacramento, California, October 23, 2008—The Sacramento Department of Parks and Recreation, Aquatics Section invites dog lovers to attend the 7th Annual Department of Parks and Recreation Doggy Dip Days event . Due to ever-increasing participation by dogs from all over our region, organizers have added an additional day, making it a two day event. Doggy Dip Days will take place this Saturday and Sunday, October 25th and 26th, at Pannell-Meadowview Recreational Swimming Pool - 2450 Meadowview Road.

During Doggy Dip Days, dogs are allowed to swim in Pannell-Meadowview Pool, a zero-entry pool. The event provides dogs with an opportunity to safely enjoy themselves in and around water.

Dogs that are not comfortable around water can always enjoy one of the City's seven off-leash dog parks at Bannon Creek Park, Tanzanite Community Park, Belle Coledge Park, Granite Regional Park, Jacinto Creek Park, Glenbrook Park, and Regency Community Park.

The Department invites all dog lovers to attend this event. Lifeguards will be on duty to rescue dogs that get cramps after eating and not waiting long enough to re-enter the pool. There is a $3 admission fee per dog.
