FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City of Sacramento Celebrates Earth Day with Environmental Education and Activism Chavez Park, April 22, 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Earth Day celebrates the environment and empowers communities across the globe to embrace “GREEN” practices that protect and preserve the environment. In recognition of Earth Day, the Mayor and City Council, in partnership with the Neighborhood Services Department, will host the City’s annual Earth Day Celebration. Residents and the media are invited to Chavez Park to enjoy a day of environmental education, activism, and fun activities for everyone.

The City of Sacramento Earth Day Celebration will take place on Thursday, April 22, from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. at Cesar Chavez Park - 910 I Street.

More than 50 different entities, including state and local municipalities, will provide information about:

- Green Employment & Educational Training
- Solar Services & Solar Information
- Environmental Sustainability & Preservation
- Recycling

There will also be a Kids Zone where children can enjoy interactive games, activities and fun educational experiences. Live entertainment will be provided by:

- Top Class Magic
- Radio Disney
- Sacramento City College students - performance of the play “Fall of X”
- V101.1 FM
