Neighborhood Summit 2010: Sacramentans gather to discuss ideas and strategies that nurture healthy neighborhoods Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Neighborhood blight and renewal, affordable housing, crime prevention, energy efficiency, disaster preparedness, and healthy communities. These are some of the issues on the minds of Sacramento residents. This Friday, during the 2nd Annual Neighborhood Summit 2010, representatives from the public, private, and nonprofit sectors will gather to discuss these and other important issues and devise innovative strategies that nurture healthy neighborhoods. The Summit will take place from 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. at the Sacramento Convention Center - Grand Ballroom, 1400 J Street.

The Neighborhood Summit is being organized by the Neighborhood Services Department. Its purpose is to promote communication and partnership between City staff, residents, neighborhood associations and business owners. The summit will consist of special presentations, discussions, and workshops, the titles of which include:

- Getting Ahead of the Crime Curve
- How Community Partnerships Help Build a Healthy Community
- Talking Trash – Waste Reduction and Recycling
- Rebates and Financing for Energy Efficiency for Your Home
- Fight the Blight!
- Disaster Preparedness
- Spare the Water Sacramento
- Urban Agriculture a Growing Trend
- Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment
- And more!

The keynote speakers will be Dr. Mitchel Adler of MindBody Intelligence and Mike McKeever, Executive Director of the Sacramento Area Council of Governments (SACOG).

Neighborhood Summit 2010 is being made possible through generous sponsorships from Nehemiah Corporation, JB Management, U.C. Davis Campus Community Relations, and Sacramento Consolidated Charities.
