WHO/WHAT

The Sacramento City Council will recognize four major awards received for the City's 2030 General Plan, which was adopted in March 2009. The four awards include:

- American Planning Association (APA) Comprehensive Planning Award, Large Jurisdiction APA California Chapter
- American Planning Association (APA) Comprehensive Planning Award, Large Jurisdiction APA Sacramento Valley Section
- Association of Environmental Professionals (AEP) Planning Document Merit Award AEP California
- TransitAction Excellence Award, Organization/Agency of the Year Sacramento Regional Transit

WHEN

April 13, 2010
City Council Meeting
6 p.m.

BACKGROUND

With an overarching objective of building a livable community, the new plan incorporates urban infill strategies that aim to create walkable neighborhoods around transit stops, while integrating principles of environmental, economic, and human sustainability throughout all elements. The plans also defines how the public can reduce vehicle trips, conserve energy and water, cut pollution, and enhances the health and quality of life equitably for all residents.
