Sacramento Job Fair Targets Area Youth

Free April 2 event will provide tools to equip youth for job market and higher education

WHO/WHAT

The youth-organized Vibe Foundation, in partnership with the City of Sacramento Neighborhood Services Division and the Sacramento Employment and Training Agency, is hosting a free job fair to prepare youth for employment opportunities, provide information on higher education options and financial aid, and more. Local businesses and potential employers, including Wal-Mart, Jamba Juice, Home Depot and the City's Parks and Recreation Department will be on hand.

WHEN

Saturday, April 2, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Cesar Chavez Park and Historic City Hall

BACKGROUND:

In an effort to engage Sacramento-area youth in preparing for employment and higher education opportunities, the Vibe Foundation will host a job fair to inform and engage students and young adults on future career growth options. Job-seeker workshops will be offered on how to "dress to impress," nail an interview, as well as learn how to fill out an application and prepare a resume. College recruiters and financial aid officers also will be present to provide information on higher education options.

MORE INFO:

The Vibe Foundation is a non-profit organization run by youth with the goal of bettering the lives of Sacramento youth through education and employment. For additional information visit the Vibe Foundation's website at www.thevibefoundation.org.
