

Sacramento Center for Innovation (SCI) Specific Plan Community Meeting

The City of Sacramento invites you to the 65th Street Redevelopment Advisory Committee meeting for a special workshop on the Sacramento Center for Innovation Specific Plan. Located south of California State University, Sacramento between the railroad tracks in the west and Power Inn Road in the east, this Plan will help guide future development and will serve as a roadmap to private and public involvement in the growth and prosperity of the area. The Plan will establish basic development guidelines such as zoning and land use, as well as infrastructure and public amenities.

Please attend the community meeting to learn more and provide your input on the project including the vision, goals, objectives, and key development questions.

WED., MAY 25, 2011
