Mayor Kevin Johnson Addresses Grand Jury Report

Today Mayor Kevin Johnson issued the following statement regarding a Sacramento County grand jury that claims city misconduct over utility funds:

“The Grand Jury report claims there's been an absence of accountability in city government, and this is an issue I've talked about since I ran for office. It's why I believe we need to update our charter and create accountability in the Mayor's office. I'm not going to point fingers, because part of the problem is our system of government, where authority is spread among too many people.

Even though these issues happened before I was elected, I'm very concerned, and will be following up with staff to see how we can not only resolve these issues but prevent them.”
