

Save the Date

YDN Speaker Series Presents:
film screening and director appearance

Heart of Stone

Award Winning Documentary Film by Beth Toni Kruvant

The film is a moving story of how youth development principles can make a difference in the lives of our most at-risk students. See how a school and community can work together, across race, faith, and age to support students.

"Awe-inspiring...should be seen in every high school in the United States"
- Boston Herald

A Principals Principles... the realization that he can work with gang leaders
-Neil Genzlinger, NY Times

Deftly structured, incisive and revealing
-Kevin Thomas, LA Times

a penetrating documentary
-Leba Hertz, San Francisco Chronicle

One of the most powerful documentaries I've ever seen...I cannot recommend something more
-Zach Braff

When: October 27, 2010 (Wednesday)
5:30pm – Registration
6:00pm – Screening

Where: The Guild Theater
2828 35th Street, Sacramento CA 95817

Admission Fee: $20 for adults, $5 for youth

For more information contact info@ydnetwork.org or 916-228-2227

Register online at <http://ydnetwork.org/Registration>

"Heart of Stone" is not like any other film. It is about a school in New Jersey that becomes overrun by gangs. The school turns around when its new, dedicated principal arrives and engages the help of the community...including the older Jewish and younger Black Alumni.

Highlight of the evening: Meet award winning director Beth Kruvant