Wake-Up and Smell the Roses at Sacramento's Newest Rose Garden

Sacramento, California, July 18, 2007-On Thursday, July 19th, the community and media are invited to attend a dedication ceremony and first planting at Sacramento's newest marvel, the Natomas Rose Garden. The event will take place from 7:45a.m. to 8:45a.m.

Located adjacent to the South Natomas Community Center and Library, the rose garden takes up .4 acres of land and when fully completed, is expected to showcase 250 varieties of roses. The Natomas Rose Garden will provide residents an attractive meeting place where they can reflect, capture the beauty of roses, and also provide love-struck couples an idyllic location for marriage ceremonies.

"I want to thank all the community leaders whose hard work created this fabulous rose garden," said Councilmember Ray Tretheway. "The wide array of roses will showcase the beauty and diversity that makes Natomas a great place to live and will provide a serene gathering place for all of Sacramento."

The Natomas Rose Garden is located at 2921 Truxel Road.
