Museum Day in Sacramento

06/11/10

Spend a day discovering the treasures in your own backyard. We will start our morning with a visit to the California Museum. Be inspired by California's rich cultural history. Travel to the Casa Garden Restaurant for a delicious lunch. After lunch we will visit the Stanford Mansion. You will gain an intimate view of Leland and Jane Stanford's home as it appeared in the 1860s and 1870s. Careful research has guided the restoration of the Mansion's rich details, including crystal chandeliers, gilded mirrors, French-polished wood paneling and original Stanford family furnishings. Visitors will also experience the Mansion's twentieth century legacy as a home for children in need and California's Protocol Center. Included: transportation, museum admissions and lunch. South Hills, Camellia Center and Arden Way pick-up locations.

Deadline for registration is 05/06/10.

Guide Dogs for the Blind and Sausalito

06/25/10

We love our dogs for many reasons—they're confident, walking partners, and companions. But what if your life depended on a dog every single day? This is what it means for a person to have a Guide Dog. It may be the best example yet of the reciprocal relationship between humans and dogs.

Visit the San Rafael Campus for a tour of the Guide Dogs for the Blind campus. Learn about the great work that they do and their program. Hear about the volunteer puppy raisers and see the kennels, puppy socialization area, veterinary clinic and dormitory. There is walking on flat surfaces with limited stairs, walking distance about 6 blocks. After our morning tour we will travel to Sausalito for lunch on your own and some free time to explore. Included: transportation, tour donation. South Hills, Camellia Center and Arden Way pick-up locations.

Deadline for registration is 06/14/10.
