Event Name: Compost Seminar

October 9, 2010 8 a.m.-10 a.m.

Southside Community Garden
5th and W Streets

Lecture Topic: Planting cover crops

FREE! Kitchen Compost Bin available (1 per attendee); BioStack Compost Bins will be available at cost ($65, retails for $129).

Sponsoring Organization: City of Sacramento Department of Utilities Solid Waste Services

Event Description:

Learn how to turn yard waste into compost and improve the health of your soil! These free seminars include a how-to lesson, a special compost recipe, a free Kitchen Compost bin (provided with grant funding from the California Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery (CalRecycle)) and the ability to purchase a Biostack compost bin for $65 (retails for $129). Each seminar will feature a special lecture on various topics that will help your garden continue to flourish all year long. Composting is great for flower and vegetable gardens and can help conserve water and recycle yard waste. No reservations necessary.
