

Nature Art

Walk around your yard and collect sticks, rocks, leaves and anything else that catches your eye. You can probably even find different colors of dirt. Find a nice flat spot and make a picture with the nature you find. You can add details with sidewalk chalk if you have some. Take a picture before your temporary art becomes nature again.