

2020 Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) Sheet

While the nature of the COVID-19 health crisis has created a situation in which we are navigating many unknowns, below is update for this summer's program cycle.

- The Prime Time Teen Virtually Connected program is an eight-week virtual workforce readiness and skill development program available for youth 13-17 years of age. The online program places an emphasis on engaging participants in the development of 21st Century workforce readiness skills and the creation of a small group community service project.
- Participants engage in interactive online group sessions to gain knowledge, insight, and be more prepared when they are seeking employment within the workforce environment and selection of career options.
- All instructional programming will be online via ZOOM and/or Google Classroom. Instructional groups sessions are held twice a week, two hours a day, for eight-weeks at four different times with additional individual assignments given weekly to complete.
- Prior to the beginning of the program, participants must complete a Parent/Guardian & Student Information. Packet sent by email to each registered individual to guarantee their program slot. Staff will be available to discuss, go over, review, and answer questions that may arise.
- To receive the monetary stipend, a participant is required to attend, participate, and complete online instructional programming group sessions, community service project activities, and a mock interview. During the program cycle, participants are allowed no more than two excused/unexcused absences.
