Sacramento Regional Office of Homeland Security

Introductions

Lt. Mike Hutchins introduced the Sacramento region's Urban Area Security Initiative (UASI) program staff, and attendees introduced themselves.

UASI and Nonprofit Funding

Craig Mohar provided an overview of the FY 2018 homeland security funding allocations. The Sacramento urban area was awarded $2.5 million from the UASI program. For FY 2018, $50 million was allocated for nonprofit grant applicants located in high risk urban areas. This year there was more outreach to nonprofits informing them of the grant program and grant application guidelines. Local nonprofits who applied to the FY 2018 program were awarded almost $671,000 in federal and state grant funds, which was a significant increase over the prior year award of approximately $179,000. In collaboration with the Sacramento Fusion Center, another nonprofit workshop is scheduled for January 2019.

Central California Intelligence Center

Chris Quinn is the new Deputy Director of the Central California Intelligence Center. He provided an overview of the fusion center responsibilities, including its geographical area, partner agencies, functions, goals, services, and programs.

Exercise Plan

In addition to various tabletop exercises, the upcoming year will be focused on large scale exercises to test communications and response time for active shooter events.

Training

Beth Glynn was introduced as the new Homeland Security Training Coordinator. Upcoming classes to be conducted will be:

- Fire: S290 – Intermediate Wildland Fire
- Public Information Officer (2-day course)
- 03-05 All Hazards
- Tactical Life Saver (6 courses scheduled)

Other courses being considered include:

- Active shooter training for sworn agencies and line level employees
- Inmate radicalization in the prisons

P25 System Upgrade

Sacramento Telecommunications System Manager Paul Wilcox provided an update on the P25 system upgrade, including ongoing issues and troubleshooting. Further evaluation and review are scheduled for improving backup communication planning and regional polices.

New Business

Lt. Mike Hutchins is leaving his current assignment as Director of the Regional Homeland Security Office, and his new replacement will be announced at the next quarterly meeting.

Next Meeting Date

The next meeting will be in April 2019. An invitation email will be sent out to schedule the meeting.
