

Sacramento Police Department presents:

Pubs, Clubs and Bars Training

Citywide Sacramento restaurants, bars and club owners, managers, and staff are invited to attend this FREE event.

Led by Sacramento Police Entertainment Team Sgt. Michele Gigante, the training covers topics related to nighttime safety and security, crowd management, venue security recommendations, fire safety, code enforcement and entertainment permit advice.

Highlighted topics for this session: Active shooter response training and Identifying and response to suspicious subjects, vehicle and packages

Thursday, October 5, 2017 - 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

LOCATION:

Sacramento Police Central Command
300 Richards Blvd., Sacramento
Room: Training Room #221

Pubs, Clubs and Bars training is a collaborative of the Sacramento Police Department and the Downtown Sacramento Partnership with a dedication to sustaining a vital and safe nighttime economy within Sacramento's Central City.